FRASER'S EPL TIPPING COMPETITION

News

Well that was another hectic week. I can tell you that you can take a week's rest this weekend as it's FA Cup time. So the next round of games (Week 27) start on Friday 22nd February and remember the fixtures have changed.

What happened in Week 26?

The results and correct forecasts you made for Round 26 are shown below:

ROUND 26	RESULT	CORRECT TIPS
Brighton v Burnley	AWAY	5
Crystal Palace v West Ham	DRAW	9
Fulham v Man United	AWAY	44
Huddersfield v Arsenal	AWAY	42
Liverpool v Burnley	HOME	44
Man City v Chelsea	HOME	40
Southampton v Cardiff 	AWAY	1
Tottenham v Leicester	HOME	38
Watford v Everton	HOME	30
Wolves v Newcastle	DRAW	10
 Bonus Game	1-2	0

A shock Away win in our Bonus Game making it 11 Homes, 9 Aways and 6 Draws. Only one tipster got the result correct but nobody got the correct score. So yet again no change on our Bonus League leader board Dave Crossley on five points and 3 people still on four points.

What did Week 26 bring in our tipping comp? On average it was probably the best scoring week this season with two thirds of you getting 6pts or better, but with ELEVEN tipsters scoring 7pts that means it's another ROLLOVER, making the weekly prize for Week 27 a massive 3000 Baht.

The latest on our main leader board is that Clint Smith (154 points) still leads by three points from Ian Smallman (151 points) with Barry Copestake and Stephen Martin a further point back. As I've said before one bad week and you can fall way down the leader board and the exact opposite if you have a good week. Everything still to play for and the majority of tipsters are still in with a shout of a prize.

With two Friday night games the cut off time for Week 27 is FRIDAY 22nd FEBRUARY at 11:00pm (Thai Time). Plenty of time to think about your tips and my next update will be on Monday 25th February. The Week 28 games are midweek and start on Tuesday 26th February so I strongly recommend that whilst you have time this weekend you fill in both Weeks 27 and 28 – don't say I didn't warn you.

Enjoy your week off. Stay safe and don't forget to put your tips in 'Good Luck'.
