FRASER'S EPL TIPPING COMPETITION

News

The news I have for you this week is that whilst there is no Friday night game in Week 35 we do have a Monday night match. I think the last four weeks of any season are the most difficult for tipping (for me every week is difficult) because you're never sure which teams have gone on holiday the title and top four places are still up for grabs but relegation places are all but done and dusted.

What happened in Week 34?

The results and correct forecasts you made for Round 34 are shown below:

ROUND 34	RESULT	CORRECT TIPS
Brighton v Bournemouth	AWAY	7
Burnley v Cardiff 	HOME	37
Crystal Palace v Man City	AWAY	43
Fulham v Everton	HOME	2
Leicester v Newcastle	AWAY	2
Liverpool v Chelsea	HOME	30
Man United v West Ham	HOME	42
Southampton v Wolves	HOME	19
Tottenham v Huddersfield	HOME	44
Watford v Arsenal	AWAY	29
 Bonus Game	2-0	12

A Home win in our Bonus Game this week, making it 15 Homes, 12 Aways and 7 Draws. A massive 37 tipsters got the result correct with 12 of them getting the correct score, one being Peter H. So changes on our Bonus League leader board again as Peter H retakes the lead with 8pts from Dave C on 7pts and 6 people all on 6pts. I still think the winner of this league will come from one of those eight tipsters.

What did Week 34 bring in our tipping comp? Because we had no draws the scoring was very good and twelve tipsters got a great score of 7pts and four tipsters went one better (including our leader) and got 8pts, but it wasn't good enough to take the weekly prize it all means that the week turned out to be a ROLLOVER and that the Week 35 prize will be 2000 Baht .

Not many changes on our main leader board, Clint Smith (204 points) maintained his four points lead – it will be difficult for anyone to catch him but not impossible. Barry Copestake (200pts) has now outright second place with Stephen Martin a further point back, closely followed by Trevor Schirmer. With only four weeks left it's 'squeaky bum' time for our leaders.

Cut off time for Week 35 games is SATURDAY 20th APRIL at 5:00pm (Thai Time). As I mentioned above there is also a Monday night game so my next report to you will be on Tuesday 23rd April Good Luck and stay safe.
