FRASER'S EPL TIPPING COMPETITION

News..

The remaining weeks of this seasons schedule are now in the system.... be careful as some of those games are likely to be rearranged. We will tackle those as and when that happens. Anyway

What happened in Week 33?

The results and correct forecasts you made for Round 33 are shown below:

ROUND 33	RESULT	CORRECT TIPS
Brighton v Leeds	HOME	10
Burnley v West Ham	AWAY	28
Chelsea v Fulham	HOME	43
Crystal Palace v Man City	AWAY	43
Everton v Aston Villa	AWAY	5
Man United v Liverpool	VOID	VOID
Newcastle v Arsenal	AWAY	22
Southampton v Leicester	DRAW	4
Tottenham v Sheff United	HOME	44
West Brom v Wolves	DRAW	20
 Bonus Game	-	-

An 'VOID' game in our Bonus Game this week still making it 8 Homes 8 Draws and 16 Aways for the season. So no change in our Bonus League, the leaders Alan Brookman, Ben Dobbs and Barry Traynor are still on 5pts and NINE tipsters are in joint second with 4pts... with only four weeks to go, if you haven't scored a point you can forget about a prize in this league.

What did week thirty three bring in our tipping comp? Despite the bonus game being void and the maximum score being 9pts, scoring was pretty good this week with NINE tipsters getting a good score of 6pts but with a great score of 7pts, PIM BAXTER and JOHN DI share the weekly prize and each win 500baht..... excellent tipping you two.

No change in the top four names on our main leader board with our long time leader, Dave Crossley still leading by FOUR points on 173pts ... but John Di continues his good form and now takes over second place with 169pts, Robert Stimpson is now third with 168pts, Peter Terry still hangs on to fourth place with 162pts. I think there is still plenty of time for changes in this league.

The cut off time for Week 34 games is Friday 7th May at 10.00pm (Thai Time) and my next report will be on Tuesday 11th May, Week 35 games start on Wednesday 12th May as always, stay safe and good luck with your tips.
